Narrating the 62nd Year of St. Joseph's College

Volume 16

Collegeville, Indiana, Wednesday, April 8, 1953

Number 12

NF Regional Congress Scheduled Here April 18

Delegates from all eight schools of the Fort Wayne region of the NFFCS will congregate on the St. Joe campus the weekend of April 18-19 for the annual regional congress.

Some 130 representatives, excluding St. Joe students, are expected to attend, according to local senior delegate Don Netols. Of primary interest to the delegates will be the election of the regional officers for the next school year as well as the formulation of commission programs for the 1953-54 term.

Fourth Council Meeting

The congress will be preceded by the fourth regional council meeting of the year the evening of April 17 and the morning of the 18th. St. Joe delegates to this include regional president Miro Pregelj, senior delegate Netols, junior delegate Ken Ryan, press chairman Buel Adams, and science chairman Frank Holzer.

The congress will open with a plenary session in the auditorium Saturday, April 18, at 1:00 p. m. Msgr. Arthur Bukowski of Aquinas College will speak the invocation; Father Henry Martin, local NFFCS moderator, and Hugh McAvoy, Council president, will give welcoming addresses.

Chicago Speaker

The principal speaker at this time will be Miss Betty Schneider, director of Chicago's Friendship House, who will keynote the congress theme, "The Pontiffs Speak to the Students."

From 2:15 until 4:00 that afternoon, panel sessions will be held in the Science Building for the press, apostolic, student government, family life, and fine arts commissions. From 4:15 until 6:00, panels on science, forensics, confraternity of Christian doctrine, international relations, interracial justice, and industrial relations will be held. The sessions on fine arts and industrial relations are organization panels to discuss the possibility of such commissions in this region.

At 7:00 that evening, the nominations and ways and means committees will meet, again in the Science Building. After the committee meetings, a social will be held in the rec hall.

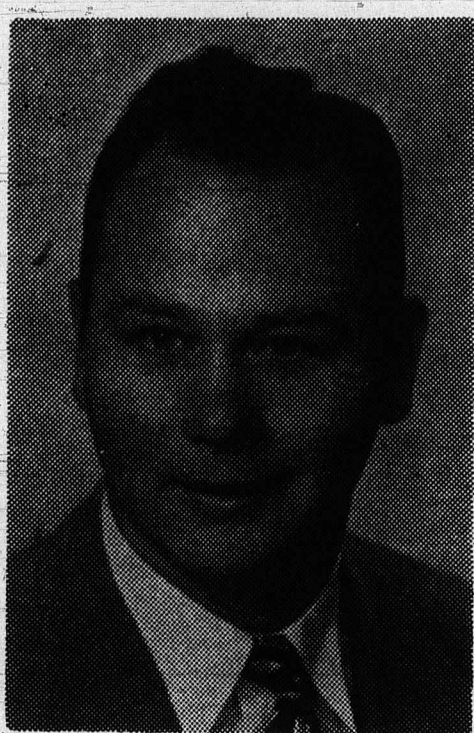

Hears Programs

Sunday at 9:45 a. m., the closing plenary session will hear the commission programs for the year and elect regional council officers from the names submitted by the nominations committee. This council will hold its first meeting later that afternoon.

Regional schools sending representatives are: St. Mary-of-the-Woods, St. Francis, Marian, St. Mary's, Nazareth, Aquinas, and Notre Dame.

Last year's congress was held at Marian College, Indianapolis; St. Joe's last congress was in February, 1950.

All sessions, panels, and the social are open to St. Joe students who register for the congress. The Student Council has paid all registration fees for St. Joe men.

Joseph Pawlowski

Joseph Pawlowski, Star at Illinois, Signs as Puma Head Football Coach

Joseph G. Pawlowski, athletic director and football, track, and wrestling coach at Paxton, Ill., high school since 1950, has been named football coach at St. Joseph's College, the Very Rev. Raphael H. Gross, president, has announced.

Mr. Pawlowski succeeds Gene Fetter and will arrive after Easter to conduct spring practice. Mr. Fetter, who coached the Pumas for the last three seasons, has signed as a line coach at Arizona State College at Tempe. There he rejoins Head Coach Clyde Smith, with whom Mr. Fetter was associated at Indiana University before coming to St. Joseph's in 1950.

A native of Aurora, Ill., where he attended East Aurora high school, Mr. Pawlowski turned to the University of Illinois, winning varsity letters at guard in 1940, 1941, and 1942. He was coached there by Bob Zuppke and Ray Elliot.

Was All-Star with Scollard

He participated in the North-South All-Star game at Birmingham, Ala., in 1942 and played against the Green Bay Packers in the 1945 College All-Star game in Soldier Field, Chicago. One of his teammates in the latter game was End Nick Scollard, pre-war star at St. Joseph's.

After playing for a time professionally with the Detroit Lions in the National Professional Football League and also in the Dixie League, Mr. Pawlowski turned to high school coaching in 1946.

Named Virginia Coach of Year

He coached football for a year at Alexander Park high school, Portsmouth, Va., then went to Churchland high school, Portsmouth, where he was also assistant principal and in 1948 was named Virginia Coach of the Year.

To be near the University of Illinois to work for his master's degree he moved to Paxton in 1950, coaching there since that time. Mr. Pawlowski is married and has one daughter.

Scholarship Test Applicants Top 200 Mark

Over 200 applications for the annual St. Joseph's scholarship examinations have been received thus far, Dean Rev. Walter T. Pax said last week. The deadline for high school senior boys to file their applications is today. A total of 30 scholarships, ranging from $400-$1440 for four years will be awarded by St. Joseph's this year.

The first examinations are scheduled this Saturday at Marmon Military Academy, Aurora, Ill.; Mt. Carmel High School, Chicago; Cathedral Boys' High School, Springfield, Ill.; Central Catholic High School, Fort Wayne; St. Anthony High School, Detroit; and St. Joseph's College.

Next Saturday, April 18, examination centers will be Fenwick High School, Oak Park; Spalding Institute, Peoria, Ill.; Cathedral High School, Indianapolis; St. Rose High School, Lima, Ohio; and St. Joseph's.

Commerce Club Awards Plaque

Elections for the Father Gordon Memorial Award will be conducted by the Commerce Club at its next meeting, Monday night. The award, an annual presentation, is given to the club's outstanding senior, as voted by the members. The award is made on the basis of scholarship and participation in college activities; to be eligible, one must have a cumulative index of 1.50 or better.

The results of the secret balloting will be made known, and the award given, at the club's traditional banquet May 11 in the college dining room.

Wednesday, April 22, the club will hold its annual picnic at Lake Freeman, near Monticello. The program includes games and refreshments.

The Board of Trade and the Ford Assembly Plant in Chicago will be the destination for club members on Ascension Thursday, May 14, when they visit these two firms on a field trip.

The men of commerce will leave the campus after Mass and begin their Board of Trade tour around 10:00 a. m. The Ford plant will be visited at 2:00.

ington, Ind., a schoolmate - and teammate of Coach Pawlowski, has volunteered to assist part time as line coach. Mr. Prymiski, who also holds the master's degree from the University of Illinois, has coached at Watseka, Ill., high school, and, as a collegian, played in the Rose Bowl with the Illini.

McAvoy Runs Unopposed; Four Vie for V-P Mantle

By TOM SHWORLES

Contests are scheduled for three of the four offices of the 1953-54 Student Council, at the Council elections next Tuesday. The lone exception is in the presidency, where incumbent Hugh McAvoy is unopposed.

Columbians Pick 'Hasty Heart' Play

"The Hasty Heart," a comedy-drama in three acts by John Patrick, has been selected by the Columbian Players as their annual Parents' Day presentation this year.

The play, first produced by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse at the Hudson Theatre, New York, in January, 1945, is a wartime story with several unusual twists. It enjoyed a lengthy run on Broadway and served as the base for the movie of the same name.

The CP's chosen by director Mr. John J. Kirby to appear in the drama are John Good, as the orderly; Jack Carlson, Yank; Joe Konkel, Digger; Jim Meyering, Kiwi; Chuck Lenertz, Blossom; Buel Adams, Tommy; Beverly Sterrett, Margaret; Don Stazy, colonel; Dick Kotheimer, Lachlen.

The Parents' Day performance May 3 in the College Theater will be the only showing of the play. Because of the limited number of seats, students will be admitted by a postcard request sent to the secretary.

Technical work for the play will be handled by the Play Production class of Mr. Kirby.

Parents' Day Program Planned for May 3

Parents' Day this year has been scheduled for May 3. It will be separated from the Science Day exhibition, held on this same day the last several years. The exhibition may be held at a later date.

On the program for the day are a baseball contest with Lewis College, Glee Club and Band concerts, a Columbian Players production, and general exhibits. The science labs will be open for inspection throughout the day.

The biggest battle will be in the vice-presidential slot, where four candidates are vying. The four are John Englehart, Oak Park, a Noll Hall junior drafted by a committee of friends; Murray Sims, Chicago, a junior from Drexel, and a member of the football squad; Bill Feely, Brookfield, Ill., Noll sophomore, and a feature writer for STUFF; and John Quinn, Chicago, a West Seifert sophomore, Inter-Hall representative of his group.

Garvey Runs Again

Maurie Garvey, Chicago soph from East Seifert, is running for re-election as Council secretary; he is opposed by Gerry Walke, Grand Rapids, Mich., a Gaspar soph, a football player and Dean's List man.

Cast Ballots Tuesday

The secret balloting will be held Tuesday in the television room of Raleigh Hall, from 9:30 a. m. until 7:00 p. m. The above candidates have all met the eligibility requirements: a member of the Student Union for two semesters before September, 1953; a C average-or-better student for the first semester of this year; and a candidate nominated by 25 other members of the Student Union and certified by the Registrar.

The elections Committee, which consists of senior Roland Meinert, junior Bernie Boff, soph Larry Schmit, and freshman Jim Griffin, will count the ballots immediately after the polls close and will thereafter announce the official results. A majority of the votes cast (one more than 50%) is required for election. If no one LIGHTS OUT--OR ON?

Another step forward in the intelligent realization of proper student-faculty coordination was taken last week.

During mid-semester exam time, the Dean of Men, acting on a suggestion from the Student Council Disciplinary Committee, once more gave a responsible privilege to the students. Thus far the idea has worked out well.

It was only a small matter; to some it might seem so insignificant as to be overlooked. But when lights were left on all night last week to permit students late study hours for the exams, the students used the privilege in a creditable manner.

This extension of responsibility carried with it certain restrictions which could have penalized the entire student body in a hall for the misconduct of a single hall resident. Evidently, the students realized this, for few, if any, complaints were made. One prefect said that he "almost fell over" when his hall turned out to be the quietest it has been all year.

This may be the key to further extension of privileges. The faculty is not loathe to grant these relaxations of present rules if they have the assurance that the students will make proper use of them. Yet, up until this time, most privileges given were converted into a "see what we can get away with" channel. Now, indications point to the fact that, while caring little for personal consequences, the student is somewhat hesitant about doing anything which would inflict punishment on the entire group. Should this attitude persist, additional privileges might be granted to groups as long as every individual in those groups respects the restrictions that have been imposed on the use of the privilege.

Obedying rules does help after all.

COMPLETE PROOF

At the crack of dawn 1920 years ago, the earth trembled, a stone rolled away from the entrance of the tomb it had sealed, and Christianity proved its merit for all time to come.

Easter morning, in the year 33, is the greatest proof in existence for the authenticity of a Redeemer. Something no one before or since has ever been able to do by his own power—die and then live again—was accomplished that day. Only God can create life where there is none; only God can raise Himself from the dead.

The Church has proclaimed this feast as the greatest in all its liturgical cycle. It surpasses them all—Christmas, Pentecost, and all the rest. Joy in God's glory is the keynote of the day, and the hymns and songs are unrestrained in their exuberance.

PLAY BALL

A handpicked lot of St. Joseph's gentlemen will engage in the national pastime against a group of gentlemen from the University of Chicago this Saturday.

Suitably attired in brand new uniforms, the gentlemen of the horsehide clan will display their wares before an expected large crowd of several hundred. They trod sacred ground—the same diamond Gil Hodges and several other current St. Joe alumni once earned their spurs on. The consensus of opinion is that this year's crop of baseballers will not disgrace the sod.

Messrs. Meyer, Smolar, Schulte, Merki & Co. seem to be successful in applying the bat to the sphere, and Messrs. Pindell, Progar, Schummer, Ashburner & Co. equally adept at twirling the baseball around the bats of the opposition.

"Play ball!"

LETTER!

Dear Editor—

The black curse of a thousand Cromwells upon the scurvy head of any plagiarist! May he run out of cigarettes, if the blackguard has the crass audacity to subvert the original to uses for which it was never intended!

Read the back issues, my lad, the back issues! See what the original, honest, upright Joe Puma, Esq., thought of the NFCCS, or Nifcus! See how he fought it every step of the way—and was successful!

And now, what? Drag out the black bunting, Mother, let's go into mourning! The crafty and insidious Cominform that runs the Nifcus and the F.D.J. has committed the foulest crime in journalism—piracy! They did it slyly, to gain their own evil ends.

Note that the creator and prototype of Joe Puma (who now sits shivering in a drafty hole in the ground in Germany, defending his right to journalistic honesty, while the fat, crafty, socialistic Nifcus-men sit home and destroy what he holds dear) was never even informed that such was to be done, much less asked for permission. No issues were sent to the poor old ex-editor, even tho he asked for them.

But truth will out! A friend sneaked out from the lead curtain with a copy of STUFF, and old Utah's hair started turning grey at what he read. The young men of Collegeville are being subverted by this foul trash! And the crowning blow is that Joe himself has lost the fine, true, anti-Nifcus character that he once had! He has become another snivelling boot-licker among the evil horde of boot-licking Nifcusists! The dirty boot-lickers!

I protest!

With all the vehemence that my shivering body can muster, I demand a retraction! Print this letter in that middle column of the second page! If you must have Joe Puma, go back to the old Honest Joe and his buddy, Dave, of 1950, if the Cominform and its minions of the press committee haven't burnt them as detrimental to the new regime.

Tell Bill Campbell (an honest, free printer whom you won't corrupt) that I said "hello." And send me the future issues of STUFF!

I now put aside my pen for my M-1 boom-boom, with the warning that I shall return, like MacArthur.

Yours truly,

Utah Cummings

Editor's note: This violent reaction comes from Pfc. John (Utah) Cummings, the previous editor of STUFF. As the originator of Joe Puma stories in this journal, he fought long and hard against "insidious Nifcussism." But the blackguards have sneaked past and now control the press on campus. This year's Puma-NFCCS series was presented in an attempt at student orientation in the NF. It has served its purpose and Joe Puma will probably lie dormant from now on until a writer who even approaches the original inimitable style can be found.

Fathers Suggest Whirlpool Buy

A whirlpool for use in the athletic department was an expressed desire of the Fathers' Club of St. Joe at their March 20 meeting in the Jungle Room of Chicago's Union Station.

The dads at this meeting indicated their desire to purchase the equipment and also heard moderator Father Richard Baird speak on ways and means of encouraging prospective students to attend St. Joe.

Mrs. Clarence J. Flynn and Mrs. Louise Gillen were named co-chairmen of the Mothers' Club third annual card party, at a recent meeting of the mothers. The party is scheduled for April 23 in the Mural Room of the Morrison Hotel in Chicago and is aimed at deriving proceeds for local improvements and at publicizing St. Joe in the Chicago area.

SHAVINGS

By ED BYRNE

LUCUBRATION IT'S CALLED according to all the reputable dictionaries. And thanks to the action of the Student Union Disciplinary Committee and the Office of the Dean of Men, the practice was given a trial run for mid-term exam week. That's right—lucubration, or nocturnal intellectual labor, or just plain "burning the midnight oil." And in spite of all, Operations Light-Bulb proved to be a whopping success, from the tomb-like silence of Ad Building bottom to the corner chamber in Seifert West. And so, in view of the Dean's promise to consider other changes in discipline if this experiment proved successful, we now await the next move from the wand that signs excuse slips. But from here it seems that an extension of light privileges would be as good as anything—especially on weekends. Granting lights on a conditional basis, as was done, seems to be enough of a restriction to keep the boys restrained after bedtime. At least it's worth a try—nothing ventured, and so on—and "Lights for Lucubration" becomes the slogan of the masses!

WHY WASN'T COLLEGEVILLE REPRESENTED at the One-Act Play Festival held recently at St. Mary-of-the-Woods? Reasons run something like this. The play which was to be used is Submerged, and two members of the original cast, Dick Para and Joe Walinchus, are no longer with the Columbian Players. Also, the date of the contest was inconveniently changed. And, furthermore, no matter what play the Columbians chose, they couldn't obtain a truck to transport the necessary set. Anyway, that's what I hear.

BOB CLEINMARK, ex-'55 and now touring Europe, was injured recently in a skiing accident at Zams, Austria. His right foot is in a walking cast and use of his right eye is impaired and may be lost entirely. Bob left the University of Vienna because of language difficulties, but is still living there and making all scheduled trips with the American entourage. On Easter Sunday he attended Mass at St. Peter's in Rome, and from there he goes to Greece and up through the Scandinavian countries to England, where he will embark for Canada on July 15. Coronation guests have filled all boats to America during that time.

DUST IN THE CORNER:

Frosh President Joe Maher spending his Easter vacation in bed recuperating from an operation performed last Saturday . . . Father Rufus Esser still startled by the unprecedented number of B grades that came out of his English Lit exam . . . Matt Herriges a sight worth seeing as he rode in from Rensselaer on Bob Lahey's front bumper—with his bass viol in his hands! . . . According to unofficial word, the girls of St. Francis, Joliet, not quite as impressed by Collegeville masculinity as had been the ladies of Mundelein . . . Brother John causing a minor economic upheaval by upping the price of his coffee from a nickel per to a dime . . . Sam Governale shocked to find a handy-six pack of (Censored) in his mail. But his conscience rested when he realized his buddy had emptied all undesirable contents before wrapping the package . . . The boys from Kankakee going all out for the home-town Centennial Celebration. Dan Deneau and Jack Richert have been excused because of previously-made graduation plans, but Jerry Gladu is making up for both of them with his romantic red undergrowth . . . Joe Walinchus operating a taxi service to regain some of the funds sunk into his new-used Dodge . . . Local basketball talent showing an interest in the extended tournament being held in Kentland, Ind. Bill Elbert is playing for Goodland, Willie Kellogg and Bernie Boff and Dick Bowman for Remington, but the team as a unit was considered too much like competition!

Bill Schulte, Puma shortstop, lines one out in practice as the St. Joe nine prepares for the Chicago Maroons Saturday. Catching is Tom Dudeck, while Maurie Garvey and Bob Wasni in the background play catch for a while.

The Grapevine

By JOHN WOLFE

THE 1953 BASEBALL SEASON opens for the Pumas Saturday, and the 20-game schedule is going to tell whether St. Joe has the pitching or not. That is the big worry of Coach Jim Beane as he sends his team through their practices each day. There are three big question marks on the roster this year and, as this observer sees it, these three men can make or break the team.

The first is Joe Pindell, upon whom Mr. Beane has to depend quite a bit. Joe, in his fourth year on the squad, started five of the seven games last year and failed to win. This year, however, it looks like Pindell's found the confidence to become a winner.

The next question mark is Dick Doherty, who will probably get the call at third base. This position has been a sore spot in the Puma infield for a long time, and if "Red" comes through, especially on defense, it will help immeasurably.

The last is Maurie Garvey, who played a little last year as a freshman, and who is counted on to replace Butch Reutebuch. If these three play up to expectations this year, St. Joe will be tough for everybody.

The power on the team should be taken care of by Ralph Meyer, Bob Wasni, Tom Dudeck, a left-handed power hitter who will give Don Merki a battle for his catcher's job; and Merki. George Smolar is a good bunter and gets on base a lot of times, fulfilling his duties as lead-off man. Bill Schulte, a capable hitter, has improved in his fielding, and Don Normandt, a freshman who only pinch-hit last year, has nailed down the right field job with his long-ball hitting.

THE GOLF TEAM has been practicing every chance they get, with the following men listed as candidates: Tom Paonessa and Tom Powell (back from last year's team); and Frank Lynn, Merle Effing, Tom Everling and John Lillig.

THE REGISTER, official newspaper of the diocese of LaCrosse, Wis., came out with the first annual Midwest All-Catholic basketball selections and placed Jack Dwyer and Don Merki on the second five. Marquette and Notre Dame are ineligible. The first team consisted of Bob Cannady and Tom Seekamp of St. Ambrose; Les Teeling of Loras; Pat Costello, St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn., and Bill Christopherson, St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn.

WINDING UP THE basketball season, a final note should be made about Don Bielke being named the most valuable player in the ICC. The six-foot-eight junior scored over 400 points during the campaign, and was named to the all-conference five, despite his team's poor showing. Runners-up for the league's most coveted individual honor were Indiana State's Dick Atha and Butler's Keith Greve.

ST. JOE DEFEATED NOTRE DAME three out of five matches in the Midwest Interscholastic Bowling League competition in preparation for the playoffs which will be held here at the Maple Lanes.

Puma Basketball Mentor Named ICC Coach of Year

St. Joe Begins Horsehide Wars With Chicago U.

A pair of home double-headers on consecutive Saturdays opens the Puma baseball season this year. The first contests are against Chicago University this Saturday afternoon, April 18. St. Joe hosts the Ball State Cardinals in an ICC encounter. April 20, Franklin College's Grizzlies will tangle with Coach Jim Beane's charges.

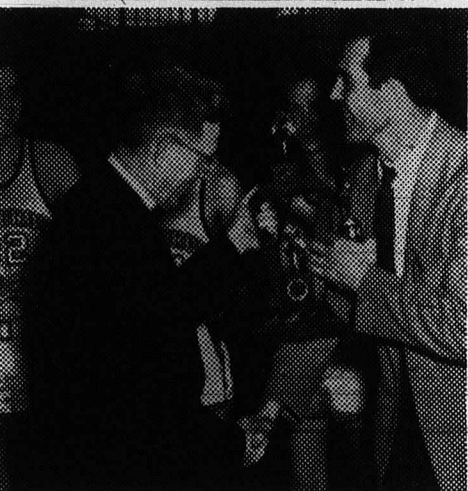

If the Pumas are to have a good year in baseball, their defensive game will have to improve, the coach reports. "We led the league in batting last year," said Mr. Beane, "but we were last in defense." The Pumas had a team average of .303 at the plate last year.

George Smolar and Ralph Meyer have been named co-captains for the coming season. Mr. Beane named his starting line-up for the first game as follows: Don Merki or Tom Dudeck, catcher; Ralph Meyer, first base; George Smolar, second base; Bill Schulte, shortstop; Dick Doherty or Bob Lavender, third base; Bob Wasni, left field; Maurie Garvey, center field; Don Normandt or Don Gorman, right field.

Coach Beane has not decided on his pitchers for the opening day, but he indicated that he is looking for a lot of help from Joe Pindell.

Pindell, Ted Ashburner, Jim Progar, and Pete Schummer were named as the mainstays of the pitching department. They will receive aid from reserve pitchers John Wolfe, Dick Dwinell, Joe Gerba, and Jim Hoess.

Two changes have been made in the schedule previously announced for the Pumas. The April 18 double-header was originally scheduled away at Muncie, but was switched here, and the May 8 single contest originally scheduled for the Collegeville diamond will be an away game.

The Rev. Edward M. Roof, athletic director at St. Joe, awards the Midlands extramural co-championship to St. Ambrose's intramural chief after the Bees had tied St. Norbert for the honor here.

DePauw Enters ICC Battles

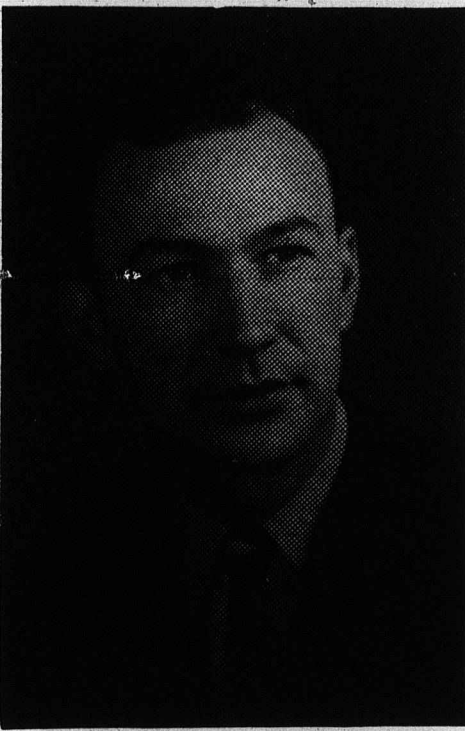

The Indiana Collegiate Conference will become a seven-college league with the beginning of the next school year as a result of unanimous acceptance of the membership application of DePauw University of Greencastle.

The action took place Mar. 22 in Indianapolis at the spring meeting of conference athletic directors, faculty representatives, and coaches.

DePauw officials said that they will not be able to schedule all six conference opponents in football this fall but that they will play the full 12-game basketball card. Conference football coaches met Monday at Terre Haute to work out the 1954 schedules.

Fourth to First Jump Wins Award for Scharf

Coach Richard F. (Dick) Scharf of the St. Joe basketball squad was named Basketball Coach of the Year in the Indiana Conference, according to an announcement from Dr. David Johnson, of Indiana State Teachers' College, Terre Haute, conference president.

Coach Richard (Dick) Scharf

Coach Scharf was named to the honor by his fellow coaches after the Puma cagers jumped from a fourth place position in last year's race to a first-place tie this year. St. Joe posted a 7-3 mark in conference play.

As a student at St. Joseph's from 1934 to 1938, the coach won 11 letters in basketball, football, and baseball. He coached the St. Joe football team from 1946 to 1950 before turning to basketball.

A native of Fostoria, Ohio, Coach Scharf was a star in basketball and football at St. Wendelin High School. He led his teams in scoring and was named captain both in high school and college.

Coach Finishes Other Tour

Basketball coach-of-the-year Dick Scharf completes a different type of campaign this weekend, when he performs in the after-dinner league at Kalida, Ohio.

He embarked on the eat-and-speak conference March 17 at a banquet for the athletes of Gilboa, Ind., High School. The next day in Brook, he shared the guest of honor spot with speaker Father Edward Roof.

March 19, the coach spoke at Tefft High School; March 24, at Goodland; March 26, at North Judson. He also traveled to Maria Stein, Ohio, for another speaking engagement.

because of a conflict in scheduling.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 27—St. Ambrose	-----Away
Oct. 3—Valparaiso	-----Home
Oct. 10—Indiana State	-----Away
Oct. 17—Butler	-----Home
Oct. 24—Evansville	-----Away
Oct. 31—Ball State	-----Home
Nov. 8—St. Norbert	-----Away

Dick Carlton's Band to Provide Music for 'Serenade in Blue'

By BUEL ADAMS

Dick Carlton and his orchestra—"America's Smartest Music"—will pay a return visit to Prom-goers at the field-house May 9, Junior Prom band chairman Vince Agnew has announced.

Carlton was also the choice of last year's juniors for Prom musician, and he was generally well received.

Carlton's past engagements form an imposing array. He has broadcast coast to coast over all four major networks and has appeared in hotels and clubs from New York to Los Angeles and from Montreal to Bermuda. Organized 15 years ago, the Carlton orchestra has had extensive experience in society work and recording as well. During the war, the maestro was musical director for General MacArthur's headquarters.

The Easter vacation has caused a cessation of activities on the Prom front. All committees are at present waiting for the signal to begin work in earnest after the holidays.

Tuxedo measurements and orders will be taken April 16, tux chairman Phil Menna has announced. Arrangements may be made through him and bulletins will be posted.

Dick Carlton, "America's smartest music," will be the bandleader for the Junior Prom here May 9. Carlton also played for last year's Promgoers.

Honduran Here to Study Sugar Mill Engineering

By BILL FEELY

Hay un nuevo estudiante espanol a lu colegiude San Jose!! Which is merely a roundabout way of announcing that Gaston Rivera, a native of the city of San Pedro Sula, Honduras (Central America, if you must know) has registered as a full-time student here at St. Joe. In doing so, Gaston has become the first Latin American student on campus.

Gaston was born Sept. 30, 1934, in the warm climate of Honduras, "where there is no winter." He is the second of a family of eleven and has five brothers and three sisters. And it was through one of his sisters that Gaston learned of St. Joe, the garden spot of the Indiana prairies.

Spreads St. Joe Story

His sister at present attends Marian College, Indianapolis, and spread the St. Joe story to the Rivera family. So, upon graduation from high school, where he studied five years and earned a Bachelor of Science degree, Gaston packed his bags and came to the United States. Since he knew very little English, he studied at the Jackson linguistic school in Chicago for seven months before entering college.

Here at St. Joe, Gaston is a pre-engineering major. After three years of study he hopes to attend the University of Puerto Rico and receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Sugar Mill Engineering. (Sugar milling is Honduras' chief industry.)

Encouraged to Attend

Gaston was encouraged to attend college by his father, who is a businessman in San Pedro Sula. His father also writes articles for the local newspaper there and is an avid journalism enthusiast.

Likes and dislikes? Basketball is his favorite sport. His chief hobby—collecting bow ties for his already-extensive collection. He likes the U. S., gets along with his roommate and thinks American girls are OK. His favorite singer is Perry Como, his favorite movie stars, Humphrey Bogart and June Allyson, both of whom he saw many times in American movies back home.

Gaston has no worries about the draft: Honduras has no Army
